COMMUNICATION

Under the Minimum Standards for School Registration, schools are required to publish a statement of their philosophy and be able to produce evidence of an outline of where the statement is published. One way of producing this evidence is to include this Communication section in the policy. An alternative or additional method is to list all your school's policies in a spreadsheet and outline the communication method your school uses next to each policy. You can adapt our consolidated spreadsheet of all policies for this purpose – refer to [Communicating our Policies.

The VRQA Guidelines to the Minimum Standards for School Registration note that the statement of philosophy could be published in the school's handbook, strategic plan or on the school website. We recommend publishing it on the school website or other online parent/carer/student communication platform.].

This policy will be communicated to our school community in the following ways :

- Available publicly on our school's website
- Included in staff induction processes
